ONLINE VIRTUAL EVENTS - Remo

Our virtual events are centred around quality content with active industry speakers and robust chairing.

- Guests tune into a live event, chaired by a senior and experienced host from our editorial team
- Content will include presentations and panel discussions
- Strong emphasis on interaction and engagement; guests can network over video on digital networking tables, ask questions, participate in polls, connect and chat with others

HOW DOES IT WORK?

When attendees join, they are allocated a video networking table of up to 6 people.

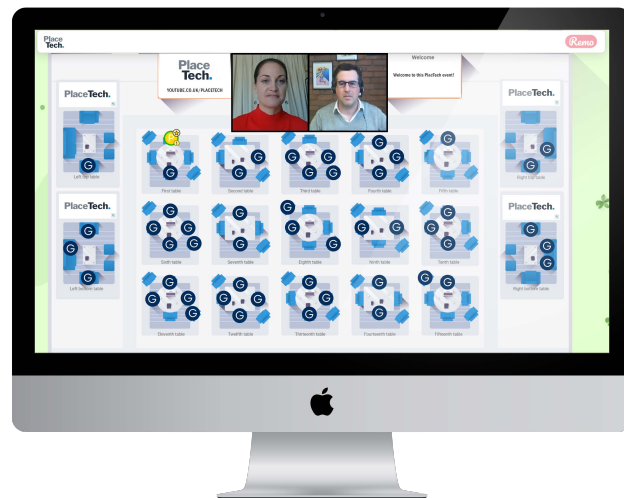

Attendees can see who is on which table and move around the room according to who they would like to network with.

There will be 'whiteboards' on each table where documents, links and videos can be shared.

Each attendee has a profile which can show a picture, job title, company details and social media links.

When presentations and panel discussions start, the networking feature will be paused and guests will be directed to watch the 'stage.'

Guests can ask questions and chat with other attendees during the presentations and panel discussions.
